CASE NO. CR 18-465 MMC

UNITED STATES' EX PARTE MOTION TO CONTINUE ARRAIGNMENT

The United States moves the Court for an order continuing the arraignment date from November 19, 2018 to December 12, 2018 for the corporate defendants, United Microelectronics Corporation Inc. and Fujian Jinhua Integrated Circuit Co. Ltd., and continuing the arraignment date from November 19, 2018 to January 9, 2019 for the individual defendants, Stephen Chen,

U.S. EX PARTE MOTION TO CONTINUE ARRAIGNMENT
CR 18-465 MMC

1 J.T. Ho, and Kenny Wang. All defendants have been served with the summonses issued in the 2 above-captioned case, requesting the defendants to appear before the Honorable Magistrate
3 Susan van Keulen in the San Jose Federal Courthouse on November 19, 2018 at 1:30pm. Since 4 then, the defendants have retained attorneys who have contacted government counsel and sought
5 additional time for arraignment in light of the fact that their clients are either Taiwan citizens in 6 Taiwan or a foreign corporation, and each represented that it requires additional time to consult 7 with their respective client. Accordingly, the United States requests that the initial appearance 8 for the corporate defendants be continued to December 12, 2018, and the initial appearance for 9 the individual defendants be continued to January 9, 2019. The United States further requests 10 that the initial appearances be moved from San Jose, before Magistrate van Keulen, to the San 11 Francisco Duty Magistrate, since the case was related by court order to the Honorable Maxine 12 M. Chesney and is now venued in San Francisco, and because the defense attorneys who have 13 contacted government counsel are located in San Francisco. The United States is filing this 14 motion ex parte since defense counsels have not made an appearance in this case yet.
